PAQUI DE RONDA

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO ATTEND BUT WOULD LIKE MORE INFORMATION ON FUTURE COURSES AND SHOWS, PLEASE TICK THE MAILING BOX ON THE REGISTRATION FORM AND SEND IT TO US.

PAQUI DE RONDA

Paqui de Ronda first studied Classical Spanish and Flamenco dance in Barcelona and later at El Conservatorio Superior de Arte Dramatico y Danza in Madrid, with renowned teachers such as Manolete, Maria Magdalena, Carmen and Cortes. Notable appearances include, in 1992, the opening ceremony of the Barcelona Olympics, Carmen at the Liceu Theatre in Barcelona and on Annie Lennox's video A Whiter Shade of Pale. During time in London, Paqui performed at Covent Garden, and in many Flamenco dance companies and as a soloist. Now back home in Ronda, Andalucia, Paqui gives regular dance classes and is the Director of her own Flamenco dance company "La Bailaora", performing frequently at many festivals, and weekly at the restaurant "La Pilastra", owned by Fran Rivera, the number one bullfighter in Spain.

FELIPE DE ALGECIRAS

Born in Algeciras, Felipe started dancing at the age of 13. In his late teens he founded and became chief choreographer for 'El Grupo Solea'. He first came to London in 1991 where he performed at the Shaw Theatre.

Following his debut in England, Felipe went on to dance at Sadlers Wells, the House of Commons and has appeared with the English National Opera at London's Colliseum.

Felipe's powerful footwork can be heard throughout the soundtrack for the film The Mask of Zorro starring Antonio Banderas.

Felipe is in constant demand both as a performer and teacher, and has gained a formidable reputation as one of London's leading flamenco dancers.
